'Best Buy' furnishing store inaugurated in Hyderabad

Furnishing these days are not just hopping out on to the street and heading for the nearest neon sign that advertise stocks to deck up the interiors. From patterns to colours to finding a match in curtains to upholstery with the rest of the interiors, it has become an exercise in itself for most.

Thus, to cater to the changing taste and needs of the young and design conscious, the city is set to have a string of stores that offer exclusive, choicest and latest in the furnishing.

Best Buy Exclusive Furnishings & Interiors on Road No. 12, Banjara Hills which opened this week is one such first initiative. The spacious store boasts of an exclusive range of domestic and imported furnishings as well as home accessories, wall papers, hardware and bamboo flooring. "Best Buy is not like any other furnishing store that stocks huge quantities of material. We have the best and latest," says Anita Shinde.

The process of putting a material at the store is preceded with enough care and adequate precaution to ensure that the same is exclusive and vibe with the trend. The range comes in two types – imported and Indian.

In the imported segment, one can shop for non-branded material in a price range that starts with Rs.1,500 per metre to a niche material available at up to Rs.8,000 per metre.

"It might appear costly but since the measure is small, one time investment will ensure that a right look stays for a longer time," she says.

The latter range is available in the range of Rs.250 per metre to Rs. 2,500 per metre. For upholstery, one can browse around in contemporary and classical range.

The store also offers the services of an in-house designer who can be approached for a detailed discussion before making a choice.
